Competition Format and Rules

競技形式および規則 / Format et règlement des compétitions

As of THU 1 JUL 2021

OLYMPIC COMPETITION FORMAT

Cycling BMX freestyle at the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games comprises men's park and women's park events.

The number of riders for each gender is limited to nine, with a maximum of two riders per NOC.

The men's and women's events are divided into the following phases: seeding and final.

During the seeding and final, each rider makes two runs. The time allowed for each run is one minute.

The purpose of the seeding phase is to determine the start order for the final. The start order for the seeding is in reverse order of the latest UCI BMX freestyle park individual ranking (the higher ranked rider starting later).

DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE UCI WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS AND THE OLYMPIC GAMES

In addition to the differences described above in the competition format, the International Cycling Federation (UCI) World Championships contain more riders due to the different quotas for NOC participation.

CHANGES SINCE THE RIO 2016 OLYMPIC GAMES

Men's and women's BMX freestyle park have been added to the programme.

SPORT RULES AND PROCEDURES

Scoring system

There are five judges who score each rider between 0.00 and 99.99 points for a particular run. The official score for a run is calculated as the average of the scores given by each judge.

In the seeding phase, the total score is calculated as the average score from both runs (average of official score run 1 and official score run 2).

In the final, the total score is the best score from either of the two runs (highest of official score run 1 or official score run 2).

Tiebreak rules

In case of a tie, the judges shall decide which rider had the better performance and the score will be adapted before it is published.

Penalties/disqualification rules

An official warning - a rider may receive an official warning for certain types of misconduct. Such a warning will be noted on start lists and results issued following the point in time when the warning has been given. In case of further misconduct once an official warning has been given, the rider may be immediately disqualified

A rider may be disqualified and thereby barred from further participation in the entire event. The rider will not be ranked in the event.

Protests/appeals

Decisions of the judges' panel are considered final, and there are no protests.
